

GRAD 2024 STING Fall 2023

Rules:

1. Entry fee is $5. Winner gets a quarter of the pot, in a gift card(s) of their choosing. Entry fee is due by October 13th at 12:30 pm. You can pay $5 cash or debit tap to Mrs. McWhirter. You have from October 4th - October 13th at 12:30 pm to pay Mrs. McWhirter to play.
2. When you 'sting' (tag) someone, you get their clothes pin and that is your new target. You must report your 'tag' to Mrs. McWhirter. If you do not report it, you are eliminated from the game.
3. You must keep your clothes pin with you at all times; it does not need to be displayed.
4. If you lose your clothes pin, you are eliminated from the game and you cannot tag your target. You must report it to Mrs. McWhirter.
5. If you get your own name, please report it to Mrs. McWhirter and we will help you out.
6. You must be the person to sting your target. You may not have other students help you 'hold' your target.
7. The Sting committee has final say in any questionable sting.
8. Pins will be handed out on October 16th, we will start the game on October 17th. Clothes pins will be delivered to your classroom in C block. If you don't have a class in C block, you may pick up your clothes pin in Room 129.

Safe Zones:

- Classrooms, Gym, Library, Assembly - Only safe during class time. Classrooms at breaks (10:18 - 10:27 and 1:48-1:58) and lunch (11:45-12:30) are fair game. Same safety rules apply as per regular school rules.
- Sports Teams - Safe at games, practices are fair game
- Bathroom, Changeroom, Office, Counselling Centre - SAFE ZONES, no stinging allowed
- Club/Extracurricular - Same rules apply as in the classroom. If the person is in your club, when the meeting ends, it's fair game
- Car - Full body must be in the car (can be your car or someone else's)
- This is only played at GESS, not in the community
- You cannot forcibly remove anyone from any of the safe zones

Safety Acts: Safety acts keep you in the game! If you participate in safety acts, you cannot be stung.

October 17th - Neon day

October 24th - Snowpants & tank top day

October 31st - Costumes - wear a costume day

November 7th - Western day - dress up in western wear

November 14th - Dress like a GESS teacher
